NARRATIVE:

Santos Vargas has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 19. His convictions include inflicting corporal punishment on spouse, possession of controlled substances, receiving stolen property, use/influence of controlled substances, violation of parole, possession of burglary tools, identity theft, evading a peace officer without regard for the safety of others, vehicular hit and run, and driving with suspended license. He has served multiple incarcerations, the longest being a 2 year term for evading a peace officer without regard for the safety of others. Santos was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on March 22, 2015. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in June 2015 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Vargas qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for evading a peace officer without regard for the safety of others is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His prior criminal history and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
